AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Films Shown African Scenes.

The Jewett City company presented at the Auditorium Wednesday and Thursday of this week, Paul J. Rainey's great African hunt. This picture is graphically described by the interesting lecture which the picture gives. It is a picture of the most marvelous and ferocious animals that live in that country and how these men risked their lives to get photographs of these beasts. Mr. Rainey was the first African big game hunter to show the world the results of his work. In this expedition there were a corps of expert photographers and motion picture operators and all the scenes are taken as they saw them.

PROFESSOR HENRY BEFREGRAGERS

Explained Workmen's Compensation at Pomona Meeting at Preston City—State Chaplain Hoyt Also Speaks—Thirteen Candidates for Fifth Degree—Schedule for Meetings to be Arranged by Executive Committee.

Meeting with the Preston City, grange on Thursday, New London County, Pomona, 8, Farmers of Husbandry, had about 100 members present during the afternoon when the lecture on workmen's compensation was given by Professor Henry Befregers, which was more simply attended on an evening of the rainy weather. The meeting was held in the grange room at Preston City.

A witty and instructive was given by Worthy Master A. E. Shedd and Worthy Master T. Avery. This was followed by a soprano solo by Mrs. Everett P. Barnes and a number of clever recitations by Master Douglas A. Fellows.

Mrs. Bliss then introduced Prof. William Webster, who came by courtesy of a Hartford insurance company, to speak upon the workmen's compensation, and accident prevention. He gave a very clear explanation of the whole subject and answered the questions of the audience.

He was followed by the state chaplain, J. H. Hoyt of New Canaan, who came in place of State Master Sherwood, who was to have attended the meeting. He gave a very interesting and instructive talk along grange lines which was greatly enjoyed.

The meeting adjourned about four o'clock.

BIGGEST LOAF OF BREAD

Fifteen Feet Long—To Be Prevalence Bakery Exhibit at Exposition.

The largest loaf of bread ever baked in Connecticut, according to the record that is known of, is what Professor Emil A. Fox of the Providence bakery is planning to exhibit at the Industrial and Good Home exposition in Merchants' week. The loaf will be 15 feet long, 10 inches wide and weigh about 50 pounds.

It will be so big that it will not be able to get it all into his own booth, but he has arranged with the Commercial bakery to have the adjoining booth to have it extend over into theirs.

The Imperial flour, will be raised with Fleischman yeast, and will all be baked at once, as a loaf of that size can be handled in the bakery oven. It will require about an hour to bake the master loaf.

The only one like that Mr. Fox knows of was exhibited in New York at the Grand Central Palace at the bakers' annual national convention.
